LOT 137 - 1943-P Jefferson Nickel Wartime Silver

Description

This auction features a 1943 Jefferson Nickel, a unique minted in the United States during World War II. Made primarily of 35% silver, 56% copper, and 9% manganese, this was part of the wartime effort to conserve nickel for military use. The obverse displays a profile of Thomas Jefferson, with the inscriptions IN GOD WE TRUST and LIBERTY alongside the year 1943. This historical piece is an excellent addition for collectors interested in wartime artifacts or classic American age.
