LOT 63 - Vintage 1941-1945 WWII U.S. Savings Bonds Appreciation Plaque

Description

This auction is for a vintage United States Treasury appreciation plaque, issued in 1946. The plaque commemorates volunteer service in financing World War II through the sale of U.S. savings bonds, benefiting 85,000,000 Americans. It features an embossed image of a Minuteman and is inscribed with dates 1941 - 1945. The piece bears the signature of Fred M. Vinson, Secretary of the Treasury. This historical artifact is a unique addition to any collection of WWII memorabilia or U.S. history artifacts. Don't miss the chance to own this piece of history!
