LOT 5 - 1945 Half Dollar MS 64 NGC Graded Walking Liberty

Description

The 1945 Walking Liberty Half Dollar, designed by the renowned Adolph A. Weinman, is a testament to the artistry and resilience of wartime America. With a significant mintage of over 31 million coins struck at the Philadelphia Mint, this issue is among the more common entries in the series, yet its historical context during the final year of World War II adds a layer of collector intrigue. Certified by NGC as MS 64, this coin exhibits a strong strike characteristic of Philadelphia's high-quality production standards, with bold details evident in Lady Liberty's flowing gown and the eagle's feathers. The smooth, lustrous surfaces are free from significant blemishes, offering an appealing cartwheel effect under light, enhancing its numismatic desirability. As part of the ever-popular Walking Liberty series, this half dollar serves as an essential acquisition for those aiming to complete a collection with affordable yet historically significant entries.
