LOT 17 - Series 2021 One Dollar Note Pack Attractive With BEP Strap

Description

The attractive Series 2021 One Dollar Note Pack, adorned with its original Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) strap, offers collectors a unique glimpse into contemporary U.S. currency production. In terms of mintage, while exact figures for strap-packs are not outlined, most 2021 series notes share comparably ample production numbers, making them common within the modern series but sought after for complete collections. These notes, devoid of a mint mark due to their provenance from the BEP, reflect the economic resilience of the United States through a global pandemic, a testament to the steadfast circulation of currency. Collectors will appreciate the pack's brand-new condition, defined by crisp paper quality and stark contrast in ink, alongside meticulous alignment, ensuring its status as a collectible with enduring appeal. A must-have for collectors focusing on series completion, especially those attuned to contemporary currency and its evolving role in numismatics.
