LOT 13 - 2014 American Silver Eagle MS69 Early Releases NGC Certified

Description

The 2014 American Silver Eagle, certified MS69 by NGC as an Early Release, is an impeccable example of the U.S. Mint's premier silver bullion coin. Struck at the West Point Mint, known for its production of special issues and modern commemoratives, the coin features Adolph A. Weinman's timeless Walking Liberty design, symbolizing strength and grace on the obverse, while the reverse showcases John Mercanti's heraldic eagle beneath 13 stars. With a mintage of 44,006,000, the 2014 release ranks as a common year within the series, yet its Early Release designation adds a layer of appeal for registry set enthusiasts. The brilliant luster and razor-sharp strike of this coin create an impressive cartwheel effect, ensuring its prestige among collectors. As part of the Silver Eagle series, it holds significance for type collectors, silver investors, and those seeking to complete a comprehensive array of American Silver Eagles.
