LOT 6 - 1937-D Buffalo Nickel Graded PCGS MS65 Attractive

Description

This 1937-D Buffalo Nickel, graded PCGS MS65, represents a remarkable blend of historical significance and technical excellence. With a mintage of 17,826,000, it comes from the Denver Mint, known for producing lower mintage Buffalos that often command collector premiums. The 1937-D is renowned for the intriguing three-legged buffalo variety, though this standard strike remains notably collectible due to its high-quality luster and strong strike, characteristics uncommon in many Denver-minted issues. The vibrant cartwheel luster of this MS65 specimen is complemented by its beautifully preserved surfaces, showing minimal marks and outstanding eye appeal. As a high-end example of this series, it presents a fantastic opportunity for collectors focused on completing a quality set of Buffalo Nickels with maximum visual allure.
