LOT 3 - 1922 Peace Silver Dollar ICG MS64

Description

The 1922 Peace Silver Dollar, with a mintage of 84,000 coins, is a notable semi-key date within the series, making it a sought-after piece for collectors. Designed by Anthony de Francisci, this coin symbolizes peace following World War I and features the iconic depiction of Liberty on the obverse and an eagle perched on a rock on the reverse. This example, graded MS64 by ICG, exhibits exceptional luster and eye appeal, characteristic of high-quality strikes from the Philadelphia Mint, where it was produced. As a premium quality specimen, it stands out in the market, appealing to both type collectors and those focused on completing their Peace Dollar sets. The coin's preservation and technical quality enhance its desirability, making it a valuable addition for serious numismatists.
