LOT 22 - 1904-O Morgan Silver Dollar MS63 ICG Holder with Eagle Reverse

Description

The 1904-O Morgan Silver Dollar, with a mintage of 3,750,000, is a notable issue within the series, ranking as a common date but still highly sought after due to its New Orleans Mint origin. This particular example, graded MS63 by ICG, showcases the classic design by George T. Morgan, featuring the iconic Liberty head on the obverse and a majestic eagle on the reverse, emblematic of American strength during a period of economic recovery following the Panic of 1893. The New Orleans Mint produced coins with a distinctively softer strike compared to its Philadelphia and San Francisco counterparts, making well-preserved examples like this one particularly desirable among collectors. In terms of technical quality, this coin exhibits brilliant luster and minimal contact marks, indicative of its MS63 grade, which enhances its eye appeal and market desirability. As a staple for both type set collectors and those focusing on the Morgan series, this piece holds significant value for completionists and offers a glimpse into the rich history of U.S. coinage during the early 20th century. With a strong collector base and consistent demand, this 1904-O Morgan Silver Dollar is an excellent opportunity for enthusiasts looking to enhance their collections.
