LOT 21 - 1900-O Morgan Silver Dollar About Uncirculated with Bold Eagle Design

Description

The 1900-O Morgan Silver Dollar, with a mintage of 8,190,000, is a noteworthy example from the New Orleans Mint, which is renowned for producing coins with distinctive characteristics and often lower survival rates due to its historical context. This particular coin is graded About Uncirculated, showcasing a bold eagle design that reflects the artistry of George T. Morgan, whose work has become iconic in American numismatics. While not a key date, the 1900-O is considered a semi-key within the series, and its relative rarity is enhanced by the fact that many examples were heavily circulated, making high-grade specimens like this one particularly desirable among collectors. The coin exhibits strong luster and minimal wear, with surfaces that are well-preserved, enhancing its eye appeal and market value. As collectors seek to complete their Morgan Dollar sets, this example stands out not only for its aesthetic qualities but also for its historical significance, making it a compelling addition to any serious numismatic collection.
